Over 120 years of experience!

The Boerma family has been 'in the flowers' for generations! In that time Boerma Instituut celebrated it's 35th anniversary on January 1, 2015!
With 35 years of operation we are proud of our specialization in national & international professional courses. At the Boerma Instituut we believe in Floral education on all levels; from hobbyists to professionals, all over the world!

A little bit of history

120 years ago in Limburg, where our (great) great grandfather Pieter Boerma started working 'in flowers' in Maastricht on April 14th. He was the one who, in the spring of 1922, came with a proposal that lead to the foundation of the Flower Express, currently known as Fleurop Interflora.

(Great) Grandfather Nico Boerma had a flowershop for several decades in Heerlen, was the secretary of the Limburgian Florist Association and board member of the 'Florist Association, the VBW and Fleurop Interflora Netherlands for 32 years.

The First Master Florist

Theo Boerma also started working 'in the flowers'. He attended the Vocational school for Floristry in Vught. After that he joined the first Master Florist course and teacher training at the HTS in Roermond. In 1964 the Southern Limburgian florists started the first vocational school for Floral Design in Limburg and Theo, as the only official Master Floral Designer in Limburg at the time, was appointed the qualified teacher.

Moving from Limburg to Aalsmeer

After several years Theo and his family moved to Aalsmeer, where from 1968 to 1981 he worked at the RMTS (Government Horticulture School), teaching classes in Floral Design. In 1972 he also started teaching professional floristry courses 'for himself' and gave (as the only person in the Netherlands) evening courses for adults, for the then still legally required 'Florist Diploma' (Which since the opening of the European borders in January 1996, is not needed anymore to start a flowershop).
On augustus 1st of 1980 Theo, together with his wife José, started the Boerma Instituut.

1980-2015

Present and future

Fourth generation

Now run by their daughter Jacqueline, the fourth generation 'in flowers', she started working at the school in 1981. Giving demonstrations and teaching classes all around the world. Jacqueline is an official European judge in Floral Design and has been a judge at national and international competitions.

Fifth generation

Since 2013 Jacqueline´s son Mike is also working at the het Boerma Instituut. That same year he finished the Professional, Advanced and Master Course. In 2014 he started teaching the Professional Course. Mike also travels the world to teach classes and give demonstrations. Mike is also a one of the Floral Fundamentals ambassadors.

"Our vision is to design and create flower arrangements all over the world, sharing our family love of flowers and techniques. We love helping people become great floral designers, so they can spread their passion."

Bridal Work

Bridal work plays an important role in a wedding. The bridal bouquet, corsages. The arrangement on the wedding car, the bouquets for bridesmaids, the altar decor.

This 5 days course 'Bridal Work' is intended for students and floral designers. Those who wish to hone their skills. All the arrangements will be demonstrated and made step by step. This course is first and foremost a practical course. The emphasis is on techniques.

During the Bridalwork course of 5 consecutive days, level 1, we will make

Day 1 Handtied bridal bouquet, lady's- and gentlemen's corsage, using wire techniques;
Day 2 Biedermeier bridal bouquet on Oasis with matching corsage;
Day 3 Hair corsage and a pomander bridal bouquet;
Day 4 Teardrop bridal bouquet in linear style on Oasis;
Day 5 Bridalbag in a Bolsaflora container with a fitting grooms corsage using glue techniques

During the Bridalwork course of 5 consecutive days, level 2, we will make

Day 1 A romantic bridal bouquet in an Oasis holder with a matching corsage;
Day 2 A wired bridal bouquet with orchids and roses;
Day 3 Cascade bridalbouquet using wire techniques in combination with glue techniques;
Day 4 In the morning we will make an altar decoration. The altar one of the most eye catching points of a church as soon as the bride and groom have arived. The arrangement has to fit in well with the other bridalwork;
Day 5 On the last day the students will be divided in groups and each will decorate a car.

International Professional Courses

People from all over the world join these professional courses for a wide variety of reasons. There are students that want to become professional florists with the right skills or event designers, people that work on cruise ships who do the floral decorations and want to broaden their abilities and improve their skills. Some people join this course simply because they like to improve in their hobby and learn more about the craft.

Boerma Instituut is one of the few schools in the world where people can learn many techniques and about (Dutch) Floral Design in a short period of time. Want to become a creative Professional Florist in just 3 months? Then our 3 professional courses are the right ones for you!

Level:

Professional Dutch Floral Design Course (DFD)

Practical orientated

The DFD course is primarily focused on the practical aspects of the craft. However, there are theory classes and a lessonbook with theory to be reviewed at your own pace.
During this course of 5 modules you will learn how to make the basic arrangements and bouquets a professional Dutch florist should know how to make:
- Hand tied bouquets; mixed, grouped, linear, mille fleurs and hand tied brida bouquet;
- Bridal bouquets; a.o. Biedermeier, linear, pomander;
- Corsages; Men's, ladies, hair, hat;
- Funeral/wall work;
- Vases, containers, wreathes and table decoration in a varity of styles and different techniques.

Intensive, in a short timeframe

This course is set up to give an as complete as possible training in an as short as possible time frame.
From experience, we know that by giving our best effort and working together, you will get great results. If you do not have the time to spend 5 weeks, it is also possible to follow the course in seperate modules. Only joining the first module already gives you a good insight and a certificate of the basics of Dutch Floristry.

Since Floral Design is a practical craft, the more arrangements you make, the better and aster you become. This is why you often have homework assignments. This will ensure you to get more experience, more routine and -maybe most importantly- more confidence. The more you practice, the easier it will be.
This is especially important in preparation towards the exam.

Theoretical knowledge

Because every good designer needs some theoretical knowledge, the most important theory subjects are bundled in a lesson ook. Some of the subjects are; material knowledge, plant knowledge, estetical design, color theory and art history. Even though there is no theoretical exam, these topics will still be discussed during the course.

Included in our professional DFD course

- Coffee, tea, juice and lunches;
- Knife, scissors and rose scraper;
- On one of the lesson days we will go on an excursion to the flower auction 'Flora Holland' in early morning;
- The practical exam plus the exam preparation days;
- The Dutch Floral Design diploma and the green Boerma Flower pin (after succesfully completing the exam)

Practical exam

- The exam arrangements will be judged on design, durability and technique.
- During the exam every candidate has to make 5 arrangements.
- For each arrangement marks will be given from 1 to 10.
- The exams will be judged by 3 judges; 2 teachers and 1 professional floral designer.

Ask for rules and regulations to know more about the exam.

Course duration
The International professional DFD day course is a full-time course, Monday to Friday for 5 weeks. Lesson days are from 09:30 to 10:30, including a lunch and a short coffee- or tea break.

The international DFD course can also be followed in seperate modules, each module is 5 days. After each complete module the participant will receive a certificate. At the end of module 5 the student is able to participate in the exam.

Master in Dutch Floral Design (MDFD)

The Master in Dutch Floral Design course is the highest level course that the Boerma Instituut offers. Growing your confidence, combined with developing your talent and creativity plays the most important role on the long road to becoming a Master in Dutch Floral Design.

A broad choice of specialists

A big part of the lessons will be given by internationally well known Master Designers. The curriculum is dependent on trends and developments.

Some former teachers of the Masters Course include:
Aad van Uffelen, Bart van de Elsken, Brigitte Heinrichs, Irma Mus, Jacqueline Boerma, Nicky Markslag, Peter Boeijkens, Petra van de Veen, Pim van den Akker and Tomas De Bruyne
Each with their own knowledge and unique set of skills. We also enjoy engaging with Masters who are at the top of thier carreer.

Some of the subjects

A different approach to floristry, A themed project on a budget, Practical Avant-Garde, Gala works.

Curriculum

Of the students is expected that the time between 09.00 to 09.55 and from 15.45 to 17.00 is used to do the necessary research and preparation of the exam. For example they need to make calculations & invoices, collages, drawings and a maquette.

International Master in Dutch Floral Design course

The fulltime 3-week international Master in Dutch Floral Design Course (MDFD), will be given 5 days per week.

Exam and Diploma

During our MDFD course there are two exams. One of which is a group exam and the other is a personal exam. The diploma will only be given when both are passed positively.
The arrangements will be judged on; subject, technique, creativity, color and material choice and asignment book.

Level:

Group lessons and/or demonstrations

We can offer companies, organisations and associations a 'custom tailored' lesson schedule(s). This can be professional classes & possible to give fun hobby workshops for a party.

These practical lessons can be given at the Boerma Instituut in Aalsmeer, where we have all the necessary materials at your disposal, it is also possible to do it in the location of your choosing

Company outing or training?

For every level and occasion we have a floral solution! If it's about hand tied bouquets, biedermeier arrangements, table decorations or very exclusive floral arrangements.
All for the groupsize and time duration that you would like. For example- From a half day to five or more days

Christmas event

Would you like to give your employees something different than a regular christmas gift or gift voucher? Combine a Christmas event with a Christmas Workshop or course, complete with a Christmas dinner! We can create a very cosy setting in our Café de Mijnen in the heart of our school.

Included in the course fee

Underneath you can find the price for regular custom tailored group lessons. Include all necessary materials, certificate of participance, coffee/tea, juice and (during whole days) a lunch buffet.
Tools are not included in the couse fee. Please bring your own tools.
